Explaining the basic tenets of Islam, Judaism and Christianity as based on Abraham as the father of all three, Feiler takes us on a journey through the times of history as each religion is birthed. Read more. Helpful. Comment Report abuse. C. Moschopoulos. 5.0 out of 5 starsWhat do Judaism, Christianity and Islam believe about Abraham? February 1, 2019. This is certainly an interesting read and an easy one. I thought the author did an excellent job of providing three points of view from the three major faiths that each claim Abraham. More importantly, he provided an insight to the fact that Abraham is a different person to each of the faiths, or that he is a composite of many individuals, or questions if he actually existed at all. The end notes, questions, and readings provided at the end were helpful. The only reason I didn't give this a 5 star was a note of flippancy that I detected some time. Spending paragraph space on why Hollywood Mr. Feiler talked about his book, Abraham: A Journey to the Heart of Three Faiths, published by William Morrow and Company. The book is about Abraham as the the central religious figure in whom Judaism, Christianity, and Islam find their origins. Mr. Feiler argues that in order for those three religions to better understand each other's differing viewpoints, they need to better understand Abraham. In writing the book, the author explored the modern Middle East in order to better understand the region that Abraham lived in, hundreds of years ago. Feiler also wrote Walking the Bible: A Journey b
