We Will Rise - rebuilding the Mexikah Nation. by Kurly Tlapoyawa. Published July 6, 2006 by Trafford Publishing . one nation, one voice, united we stand to rise up again from the ruins we suffered there is always hope, we are strong we can afford to smile again.we will rise again as out spirits to rebuild the nation will not peterout with slight injury.. it will hurt us but not the national pride and we will rise again....beautiful imagination and.Â Your poem is a wonderful antidote to the cynicism that abounds in the world and I applaud (and support) your optimism and the lightness of your heart. Sadly, I fear that despite all our collective efforts in the world, such tragedies will continue - until we learn to consume less and love more. A graceful poem.
